Dear Mr. Miles,

The Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law (the "Lawyers' Committee") respectfully requests that the Office of Special Counsel ("OSC") investigate Kris Kobach for numerous apparent violations of the Hatch Act.

The Lawyers' Committee was founded in 1963 and is committed to full and fair enforcement of federal civil rights laws and ensuring equal justice under law for all. The Lawyers' Committee has been at the forefront of the legal struggle to advance and protect the right to vote, and accordingly it has substantial interest in the recently launched Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity (the "Commission").

Mr. Kobach is a special government employee serving as the Vice Chair of the Commission. He has also announced his candidacy for the 2018 Kansas gubernatorial election. Mr. Kobach has repeatedly exploited his Commission role to promote his candidacy and to solicit campaign contributions, including by promoting his campaign through media interviews where Mr. Kobach appeared in his official capacity as a Commission representative.

The Hatch Act may not categorically bar Mr. Kobach from listing his role on the Commission among other biographical details in campaign literature, but his extraordinarily aggressive promotion of his Commission role—including in soliciting campaign donations—far exceeds any such acceptable use. The Lawyers' Committee thus respectfully requests that the OSC assess whether Mr. Kobach's many apparent violations were willful and, if so, the appropriate remedial measures.

Any violation of federal election laws by an official in such a high-profile position would be troubling, but it is especially disturbing that Mr. Kobach appears to have violated the election laws in connection with his leadership on a White House Commission with the stated purpose of ensuring election "integrity."

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The Lawyers' Committee includes below only facts documented in the public record.

1. The Presidential Commission on Election Integrity

President Trump established the Commission by Executive Order on May 11, 2017.<sup>1</sup> The Order declared that the Commission's stated purpose is to "study the registration and voting processes used in Federal elections," and to produce a report to the President on any "laws, rules, policies, activities, strategies, and practices" that affect "the American people's confidence in the integrity of the voting processes in Federal elections."<sup>2</sup>

The Commission is subject to the Federal Advisory Committee Act and has filed a Charter as required under the Act. The Charter provides that the Vice President will serve as the Chair of the Commission, and the President may appoint up to 15 additional members. Ex. A ¶ 11. The Vice President may select a Vice Chair from among these 15 additional members. Id. All members, including the Vice Chair, must be either "regular Government employees" or "Special Government Employees." Id.

The same day the President established the Commission, the White House announced the appointment of Kansas Secretary of State Kris Kobach as the Commission's Vice Chair.<sup>3</sup> Because Mr. Kobach is not a full-time federal employee, he necessarily holds the status of a special government employee ("SGE") under the Commission's Charter. Ex. A ¶ 11(b).

2. Mr. Kobach's Candidacy for Governor of Kansas

Mr. Kobach is also a candidate for partisan political office. Mr. Kobach announced his candidacy for Governor of Kansas on June 8, 2017, criticizing the culture of “corruption” and the questionable ethics practices of Kansas lawmakers in his campaign announcement.<sup>4</sup>

3. Mr. Kobach's Use of Commission Role to Promote Candidacy

Mr. Kobach has prominently and repeatedly used his role on the Commission to promote his candidacy for Governor and to solicit campaign contributions. He has done so in multiple settings—including on his campaign website, on his official campaign social media accounts, and in his public appearances.

The bottom of the homepage of Mr. Kobach's campaign website displays the most recent posts on his official campaign Facebook and Twitter pages (described in further detail below). As of July 1, 2017, the posts featured on the campaign homepage related to two television interviews that Mr. Kobach conducted on Fox News and MSNBC on June 30, 2017, both of which focused entirely on Mr. Kobach's work on the Commission. Ex. B. The homepage also solicits campaign donations in multiple locations. Id. The “About” page of the campaign website further highlights Mr. Kobach's role on the Commission, stating that “President Trump knows there is no greater leader on these issues, which is why he named Kris to serve as the Vice Chair of the Presidential Commission on Election Integrity.” Ex. C. Again, the page conspicuously solicits campaign donations. Id. The “News” page of the website links to just three news stories, each of which centers on Mr. Kobach's work on the Commission. Ex. D. There is a “Contribute” button immediately to the right of the stories, and immediately below that Contribute button the page displays the most recent post on Mr. Kobach's Facebook page (which as of July 3, was an NPR interview Mr. Kobach gave discussing the Commission). Id.

Mr. Kobach has similarly promoted his Commission role on his official campaign social media pages. Mr. Kobach's Twitter profile states that the page is “Paid for by Kansas for Kobach,” and the page's banner depicts his campaign logo. Ex. E. His Facebook page displays the same campaign logo. Ex. F. The Twitter and Facebook pages collectively contain at least 40 different posts referencing Mr. Kobach's work on the Commission. Exs. G, H. These include three Twitter posts on June 30 promoting or recapping Mr. Kobach's interviews on Fox News and MSNBC that same day, and a June 30 Facebook post embedding video of the Fox News interview. Id. Mr. Kobach authored these posts—on his campaign accounts—contemporaneous to the interviews he was conducting as a representative of the Commission.

Mr. Kobach has also described his role on the Commission in campaign appearances. For instance, Mr. Kobach appeared on a local “let's have a beer and talk” television segment the day he launched his campaign. In the course of the interview, he referenced his position as Vice Chair of the Commission and described the work he expected the Commission to perform.<sup>5</sup>

POTENTIAL VIOLATIONS

The Hatch Act prohibits federal employees from using their “official authority or influence for the purpose of . . . affecting the result of an election.”<sup>6</sup> It is unlawful for federal employees to use their “official title while participating in political activity” or to “[p]ersonally solicit, accept or receive a political contribution from another person.”<sup>7</sup> OSC has provided guidance on the application of these rules to social media, explaining that federal employees may not “refer[] to their official titles or positions while engaged in political activity at any time” — even when using “personal” or other non-governmental social media accounts.<sup>8</sup>

SGEs such as Mr. Kobach are subject to the Hatch Act.<sup>9</sup> While SGEs, unlike full-time employees, can run for partisan political office, they must maintain strict separation between their candidacy and their federal government service. SGEs cannot use their federal position to promote their candidacy or to solicit funds, and they cannot engage in any political activities while “on duty,” meaning while “representing the [federal] government in an official capacity.”<sup>10</sup>

Mr. Kobach appears to have violated these restrictions. He has prominently used his position as Vice Chair of the Commission to promote his candidacy and to solicit campaign funds. Worse yet, he has done so in a clearly calculated fashion on days when he was acting in his capacity as Vice Chair of the Commission. Mr. Kobach promoted his June 30 interviews with Fox News and MSNBC—in which he was indisputably appearing as a representative of the Commission—on his Twitter page in advance. Ex. G. He then provided summaries and video of the Fox News interview on his Twitter and Facebook pages, as well as on his campaign website, shortly after the interview aired. Exs. B, G, H. In so doing, Mr. Kobach made clear that those appearances while acting for the Commission were also in furtherance of his campaign. At the very least, Mr. Kobach turned those interviews into campaign activities by deploying them for his own partisan goals, and in particular, by linking them with solicitations for campaign contributions.

Mr. Kobach’s promotion of these appearances, as well as his numerous other references to his Commission role on his campaign website, on social media, and in public appearances, were all “directed toward the success of a . . . candidate for partisan political office”—himself.<sup>11</sup>

CONCLUSION

The Lawyers' Committee respectfully requests that OSC commence an investigation into Mr. Kobach for likely Hatch Act violations. The Lawyers' Committee also respectfully requests that OSC assess whether Mr. Kobach's apparent violations were willful. Mr. Kobach explains on his own campaign website that he served as a senior attorney in the United States Department of Justice for several years, and therefore he surely is aware of the legal requirements under the Hatch Act. Given that awareness, and the sheer number of apparent violations in this case, there are serious questions whether Mr. Kobach knowingly disregarded the law, and the appropriate disciplinary measures if he did. In Mr. Kobach's own words, "respect for rule of law [is] essential to our country."<sup>12</sup>

CHARTER

PRESIDENTIAL ADVISORY COMMISSION ON ELECTION INTEGRITY

1. Committee's Official Designation. Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity ("Commission").
2. Authority. The Commission is established in accordance with Executive Order 13799 of May 11, 2017, "Establishment of a Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity," ("Order") and the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act ("FACA"), as amended (5 U.S.C. App.).
3. Objectives and Scope of Activities. The Commission will, consistent with applicable law and the Order, study the registration and voting processes used in Federal elections. The Commission shall be solely advisory and shall submit a report to the President of the United States ("President") that identifies the following:
  - a. those laws, rules, policies, activities, strategies, and practices that enhance the American people's confidence in the integrity of the voting processes used in Federal elections;
  - b. those laws, rules, policies, activities, strategies, and practices that undermine the American people's confidence in the integrity of voting processes used in Federal elections; and
  - c. those vulnerabilities in voting systems and practices used for Federal elections that could lead to improper voter registrations and improper voting, including fraudulent voter registrations and fraudulent voting.
4. Description of Duties. The Commission will function solely as an advisory body.
5. Agency or Official to Whom the Committee Reports. The Commission shall provide its advice and recommendations to the President.
6. Agency Responsible for Providing Support. The General Services Administration ("GSA") shall provide the Commission with such administrative services, funds, facilities, staff, equipment, and other support services as may be necessary to carry out its mission, to the extent permitted by law and on a reimbursable basis. However, the President's designee will be responsible for fulfilling the requirements of subsection 6(b) of the FACA.
7. Estimated Annual Operating Costs and Staff Years. The estimated annual costs to operate the Commission are approximately $250,000 in FY2017 and approximately $250,000 in FY2018, as needed, including approximately three full-time equivalent employees (FTEs) over the duration of the Commission.
8. Designated Federal Officer. Pursuant to 41 CFR § 102-3.105 and in consultation with the chair of the Commission, the GSA Administrator shall appoint a full-time or part-time federal employee as the Commission's Designated Federal Officer ("DFO"). The DFO will approve or call all Commission meetings, prepare or approve all meeting agendas, attend all Commission meetings and any subcommittee meetings, and adjourn any meeting when the DFO determines adjournment to be in the public interest. In the DFO's discretion, the DFO may utilize other Federal employees as support staff to assist the DFO in fulfilling these responsibilities.

9. Estimated Number and Frequency of Meetings. Meetings shall occur as frequently as needed, called, and approved by the DFO. It is estimated the Commission will meet five times at a frequency of approximately 30-60 days between meetings, subject to members' schedules and other considerations.
10. Duration and Termination. The Commission shall terminate no more than two (2) years from the date of the Executive Order establishing the Commission, unless extended by the President, or thirty (30) days after it presents its final report to the President, whichever occurs first.
11. Membership and Designation.
  - (a) The Vice President shall chair the Commission, which shall be composed of not more than fifteen (15) additional members.
  - (b) Members shall be appointed by the President of the United States and shall include individuals with knowledge and experience in elections, election management, election fraud detection, and voter integrity efforts, and any other individuals with knowledge or experience determined by the President to be of value to the Commission. Members of the Commission may include both regular Government Employees and Special Government Employees.
  - (c) The Vice President may select a Vice Chair from among those members appointed by the President, who may perform the duties of the chair if so directed by the Vice President. The Vice President may also select an executive director and any additional staff he determines necessary to support the Commission.
  - (d) Members of the Commission will serve without additional compensation. Travel expenses will be allowed, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by law for persons serving intermittently in the Government service (5 U.S.C. 5701-5707), consistent with the availability of funds.
12. Subcommittees. The Chair of the Commission, in consultation with the DFO, is authorized to create subcommittees as necessary to support the Commission's work. Subcommittees may not incur costs or expenses without prior written approval of the Chair or the Chair's designee and the DFO. Subcommittees must report directly to the Commission, and must not provide advice or work products directly to the President, or any other official or agency.
13. Recordkeeping. The records of the Commission and any subcommittees shall be maintained pursuant to the Presidential Records Act of 1978 and FACA.
14. Filing Date. The filing date of this charter is June 23, 2017.

After serving as law clerk to Judge Tacha of the United States Court of Appeals, Kris went on to become a senior advisor of Constitutional Law at UMKC. Despite this busy schedule Kris found the time to lead on other important initiatives including building schools in impoverished areas of Africa. All of these experiences helped prepare Kris for his toughest leadership test.

In September 2001, Kris and his wife Heather moved to Washington, D.C. so Kris could begin work as a White House Fellow in the Bush Administration. In this position Kris served as the chief advisor to Attorney General John Ashcroft on immigration law and border security.

Less than two weeks after arriving in DC, the terrorist attacks of 9/11 occurred. Our nation was under attack and needed leadership. Kris helped fill the void.

General Ashcroft quickly placed Kris in charge of Department of Justice efforts to prevent terrorists from exploiting gaps in U.S. immigration controls. He led the team that designed and implemented the National Security Entry-Exit Registration System, resulting in the apprehension of numerous suspected terrorists. This bold initiative helped keep Americans safe.

When Kris's White House Fellowship came to an end, General Ashcroft appointed him Counsel. Kris went on to lead the Department of Justice reforms of the immigration court system, resulting in the reshaping of the Board of Immigration Appeals in 2002.

Since his time in the Bush administration Kris has become a nationally-recognized litigator representing US citizens, cities, and states in cases involving illegal immigration across the country. He is well known nationally for his role as co-author of Arizona's SB 1070 illegal immigration law, the model for legislation addressing this important issue. Immigration is not the only legal realm where Kris has shown leadership. He is a well-known advocate for the Second Amendment, drafting several pieces of legislation that defend the rights of Kansas gun owners.

In 2010 Kris was elected Kansas Secretary of State. In that role he has ensured Kansas has the most secure elections in the nation. During his time in office he has led the charge to require Voter ID at polling places, require proof of citizenship for all newly registered voters, and doubled the size of the national Cross Check program which allows states to share information in order to catch voter fraud. Kris has done all of this while reducing his budget every year through efficiency and best business practices.

In 2016 Kris served as an advisor to the campaign of now President Trump. He continues to work with the President on matters of election fraud, immigration, and national security. President Trump knows there is no greater leader on these issues, which is why he named Kris to serve as the Vice Chair of the Presidential Commission on Election Integrity.

Kris's proudest accomplishment cannot be found in any of his job titles or experiences. It can be found in rural Douglas County. That is where you will find his wife Heather, and their five daughters. There is nothing more important to Kris than his family. Leaving a better Kansas for his daughters is what inspires him to lead. It is why he is running to be the next Governor of Kansas.

The complaints we're hearing from state Democrat administrations are complete nonsense. The commission is looking at all forms of election irregularities. What are these states afraid of? Virginia Democrat Governor Terry McAuliff is refusing to share publicly-available data with the Election Integrity Commission. This refusal comes days after a Virginia Democrat activist college student was convicted of registering multiple deceased individuals to vote in his state. What is McAuliff afraid we'll find?

Security is vital to our electoral system. Without integrity in our process, there would be no certainty of the result. I'm grateful for the opportunity we now have to ensure the security of every Kansan's ballot through our proof of citizenship and photo ID requirements.

Voter Fraud Cases White House Commission Could Review

Florida, North Carolina, and Nevada are among states with suspicious absentee votes or noncitizen casting ballots.
